A message from Mrs Wathen & Mr Spink.....

Welcome back to the second half of the Spring Term! We hope that you had a relaxing break last week. What a busy week we have had this week! Take a look at our Facebook page to check out some of the excitement of World Book Day that happened on Thursday. So many of our wonderful children dressed up as characters from their favourite books and enjoyed a range of exciting reading activities throughout the day. Our youngest children were also visited by two beautiful guide dogs on Tuesday—the children loved them!

Please have a read of page 2, as there is some Arbor Portal news and more raffle excitement as we head towards Easter. Lastly, a reminder to you all that our Breakfast Club is a free provision from 7:30am every morning providing a hot filling breakfast for children from Reception to Year 6. Have a wonderful weekend!

HOW PARENTS CAN HELP KEEP US SAFE

PICK UP AND DROP OFF

Try to keep drop off and pick up swift. Teachers will be happy to discuss children by phone call after school.

MAINTAIN DISTANCE

Please maintain a 2m distance between yourself and others when on our school site.

WEAR MASKS

Wearing a mask on site helps us to control how the virus can spread.

COVID SYMPTOMS

IF your child has any symptoms of COVID-19, please keep them off school and let us know. Also let us know any test results.
