Responsibilities

The Trust Data Protection Officer is responsible for ensuring that this notice is made available to data subjects prior to Wellspring Academy Trust and its Academies collecting/processing their personal data.

Wellspring Academy Trust and its Academies who interact with data subjects are responsible for ensuring that this notice is drawn to the data subject's attention and where necessary their consent to the processing of their data is secured.

The personal data collected is essential, in order for the Trust and its Academies to fulfil its official functions and meet legal requirements.

1. Who we are

Wellspring Academy Trust is a Multi Academy Trust that operates across Yorkshire, Humber and Lincolnshire. Our group encompasses provision across Primary, Secondary, Alternative and Special sector areas.

2. Key Contact

Please read this notice carefully. In the event that you have any questions or concerns regarding the processing of your data you can contact:

Data Protection Officer: Jonny Wathen (Chief Information Officer & Data Protection Officer)

Email: privacy@wellspringacademies.org.uk

Telephone: 01226 720742

3. The categories of personal data that we collect, process, hold & share

We collect information from you for one or more of the following purposes:

- To support pupil learning
- To monitor and report on pupil attainment progress, progression and destinations
- To provide appropriate pastoral care
- To assess the quality of our services
- To keep children safe and protect welfare (food allergies, or emergency contact details)
- To meet the statutory duties placed upon us for DfE data collections
- To carry out research
- To comply with the law regarding data sharing
- To assess the quality of our assurance services
- To manage compliments and complaints

4. How is your personal information collected?

The Trust collects the majority of your personal data directly from you during the pupil application process. This may be supplemented by further information that you provide to us during a pupil's education with us. Further to this we will also be provided with personal data by outside organisations as detailed under Section 7.

5. Lawful basis for processing

When processing your personal data we will rely on one of the following grounds as set out in Article 6 of UK GDPR:

- a. Public Task: The main lawful basis used for the processing of personal data is 'public task' for the delivery of pupil education.
- b. Legal Obligation: Many of our record keeping requirements are set by parliament through statutory legislation.
- c. Vital Interests: Sometimes we need to process data to protect the life of an individual such as in an emergency situation or when a child is at risk of serious harm.
- d. Consent: There may be occasions when we seek your consent to process particular types of data. This will often be in relation to setting up an account with an edTech or communication system that we think would benefit you and your family. Where we have obtained consent to use personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent, and explain how consent can be withdrawn.
- e. Legitimate Interests: The processing is necessary for our legitimate interests. We don't use this basis very often because of the type of organisation that we are.

A note on Legitimate interests

As a public authority, we cannot rely on legitimate interests for any processing that we perform in respect of our tasks as a public authority. However, due to the nature of our organisation there will be instances where we have other legitimate purposes outside the scope of our tasks as a public authority. In such instances we will consider legitimate interests where appropriate.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using your personal data overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the Trust's use of your data.

6. Special Category Data

Under UK GDPR there are certain types of data that are recognised as needing greater protection due to its sensitive nature. We process some types of special category data such as racial or ethnic origin, religious or philosophical beliefs, data concerning sex life and sexual orientation as well as data concerning health. To process this type of data an organisation is required to identify an Article 9 exemption as well as an Article 6 lawful basis as set out in section 4 above.

The vast majority of special category data is processed under the substantial public interest exemption as we have a statutory basis for processing that type of data due to being legally required to comply with the DfE census returns for example.

7. How does this work in practice?

To assist with your understanding of how this all works in practice we have prepared a table below:

The data being processed	Our lawful basis	What else we need to tell you
Parent & Guardian records as part of pupil records	Legal obligation: Education (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2013	We are legally required to record details such as parent names and addresses for our pupils. We may also hold data about parents, guardians or carers that we have received from other organisations, including other schools, local authorities and the Department for Education.
Pupil Transport Records	Legal obligation: Education Act 1996	These records include the names and address of the parent.
Safeguarding Information including Court orders and professional involvement.	Legal Obligation: The Education (Independent School Standards) Regulations 2014	This includes special category information processed under the vital interests exemption.
Contact details required for use of third party systems	Consent	We will seek your consent before providing your basic contact details to a data processor to enable you to use that service. This would include systems such as ParentPay or MySchoolApp
CCTV Images	Public Task	As our academies are monitored by CCTV we will inevitably record some images that may be classed as special category data. Our Article 9 exemption for this data would be that processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

8. How we may share personal information

We sometimes need to share the personal information we process with the individual themselves, and also with other organisations. Where this is necessary we are required to comply with all aspects of the UK GDPR. What follows is a description of the types of organisations we may need to share some of the personal information we process with for one or more reasons.

Where necessary or required we share information with:

- Regulators (such as Ofsted)
- The pupil's family and representatives

Data Sharing with Youth Support Services (Pupils aged 13+)

Once our pupils reach the age of 13, we also pass pupil information to our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- youth support services
- careers advisers

A parent or guardian can object to any information in addition to their child's name, address and date of birth being passed to their local authority or provider of youth support services by informing us. This right is transferred to the child / pupil once they reach the age 16.

- post-16 education and training providers
- youth support services

Data is securely transferred to the youth support service via a secure file transferring system and is stored within local authority software.
